PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 24.—With the members of both teams in the best possible condition and eager for the fray, the Army and Navy football eleven have arrived in Philadelphia, ready for their annual game tomorrow on Franklin field. In previous years it has been customary to play the game on the Saturday following Thanksgiving, when the contest has proved to be a brilliant close the football season in the east. The advance of the date this year brings the army and navy game into rivalry for public interest with that of other stellar attraction of the gridiron—the annual battle between Yale and Harvard. But to all outward indications the Crimson and Blue contest at Cambridge tomorrow will not detract from the public interest in the Army and Navy game. More than 30,000 seats have been disposed of for the game on Franklin field, and today noted accommodations in Philadelphia are at a premium. Official society in Washington will have its usual large representation and army and navy officers, active and retired, living within a thousand miles around Philadelphia will be here to root for their favorites. With the two teams probably as evenly matched as ever before and with both full of fighting spirit that prevails the two great institutions which the players represent, all that is believed necessary to insure a hard and high class game is suitable football weather. The officials for the game will be: Referee, M. J. Thompson, Georgetown; umpire, A. I. Sharpe, Yale; field judge, Carl B. Marshall, Harvard; line-man, Andy Smith, head coach at Pennsylvania.

The advance guard of visitors hurried hither and thither through the Harvard square. The old college buildings grouped about the yard were resplendent with Harvard flags. Across the river, inside the gray walls of the stadium, men were at work rolling turf and completing

PIGSKIN GLADIATORS ENROUTE TO TUCSON

There the Controversy Regarding Football Supremacy will be Decided

The Bisbee high school football team left yesterday afternoon at 2:35 o'clock for Tucson to meet the Tucson high school football team today in a championship contest on the University of Arizona campus.

There were eighteen players and rooters in the party that left yesterday afternoon. Principal Sulger of the high school and Coach Henry accompanied the team.

A whole bevy of high school girls accompanied the pigskin gladiators to the depot to see them off and wish them luck. As the train pulled out the best chorus sang songs of victory and cheer, and split the air with ripping high school yells, making it absolutely sure for the local team to win from Tucson.

More than ordinary interest attached to the game this afternoon. According to reports, it will decide the high school championship of Arizona. Phoenix having been eliminated by Tucson and Douglas by Bisbee. The Tucsonians have also defeated the fast Indian team, so nothing remains. It will be a Kilkenny cat fight to a sight for either team but the other finish.

The prominence into which the winner of today's game will loom will probably attract the attention of New Mexico and west Texas high schools and a southwestern championship game may result.

REFEREE FINDS WARM ADVOCATE ON RULING

(Communicated) The Sporting Editor, Bisbee Review.

Dear Sir: In reference to the report of the soccer football game in this day's issue of The Review, I crave a little more of your valuable space to make a necessary comment in justification of Referee Currie.

The writer of these lines believes he has as many personal friends among the Lovell men as he has among the Stars, and has no wish to inflame any controversy that might injure the game; however, it will be an well, perhaps, to point out some inaccuracies in our Lovell friends' report, which states that "the Lovell team scored one goal during the first portion of the game through Gibson, but Referee Currie disallowed the goal."

The law reads that a player cannot score from an offside position, and as admitted by Lovell supporters on the side lines, Gibson was certainly offside when he put through, so he could not have scored, and the referee was correct in his ruling.

The very regrettable incident occurred when Humphries, the Lovell back, illegally handled the ball, thus, as he said, preventing an almost certain score against his team; he was penalized, and as Dixon was about to take the penalty kick, the Lovell man stepped inside the penalty area, another infringement of the rules and the referee ordered "not allowed" the kick to be retaken, thereby acting according to the rules of the game.

To an impartial observer, the protest appears frivolous. The Lovell team were obviously out-played when the Stars got a-going and the more regrettable incident from the Stars' point of view was the removal of Hilbie, as the one back came affected their play and caused them to take matters easy. Twice then Lovell's solitary goal was scored. It would be well for all members of the clubs to note the last paragraph in Prof. Hester's report on the high school game—next column to the Stars-Lovell report and take it to heart.

WARREN GOLF TEAM EXPECT TO WIN MATCH

Long Series of Defeats on Links at Douglas Expected to Be Broken

One week from tomorrow, not tomorrow as has been stated in error, a twenty men golf team representing the Warren District Country club will journey to Douglas for a match game with the Douglas twenty men team. The interest that attaches to this announcement comes not from novelty, for this is by no means the first time that local teams have come to Douglas, indeed each year there are numbers of these matches. Yet on this particular occasion there is an added interest in this engagement on the links. New conditions have arisen recently and a match with Douglas is a different affair from what it was in the past.

When golf was first started in the Warren District Douglas already had a large and enthusiastic contingent who were experienced enough to make formidable opponents to older clubs and who were invincible when pitted against a team composed almost entirely of novices. It was thought strange in Douglas that Warren could not or would not for a long time send a twenty men team, "ten being the best force that could be raised in those days. Later, even though looking upon the matches as certain defeat, Bisbee organized twenty men and, like good sportsmen, persisted in continuing these friendly matches. This was in the days of the
